Richardson - Arrington

The wedding of Miss Shirley Marie Arrington, daughter of David Stokeley Arrington and the late Mrs. Grace Sams Arrington, of Pamplin, to Henry Nathanial Richardson, son of Mr. and Mrs. James E. Richardson, of Pamplin, took place Saturday, May 21, at 4 P. M., at Piney Ridge Methodist Church, Pamplin.

The Rev. Phillip W. Thomas, of Prospect, performed the ceremony. The Rev. C. P. Price, of Pamplin, sang "The Lord's Prayer," accompanied by Miss Sandra Long, at the Piano.

Given in marriage by her brother, Melvin C. Arrington, of Powhatan, the bride wore a gown of Ivory Peau de Seau. An overlay of French Chantilly lace extended from the neckline to the hem of the princess front skirt and the low neckline at the back to the end of the circular chapel length train. Her veil fell from a cap of lace and seeded pearls. She carried a cascade bouquet of white rosebuds centered with a white orchid.

Mrs. Elmer R. Soddith, of Norfolk was her sister's matron of honor. Other attendants were Miss Rachael Richardson, sister of the bridegroom, and Miss Betty Gaye Arrington, sister of the bride, both of Pamplin. They wore dresses of lavender, embroidered crystalette with matching picture hats and carried pink nosegays of ponpons and rosebuds. Miss Anita Arrington, niece of the bride, was flower girl. She wore a dress of white silk organza with a white net headpiece.

Mr. Bonnet G. Richardson, was his brother's best man. Ushers were Mr. Edward Nash, of Appomattox, and Mr. Herman Richardson, of Pamplin.
